8:45-9:30 a.m.	Play Ball? Future of Professional Sports
	Speakers: Rick Welts, President, Golden State Warriors; Larry Baer, CEO, San Francisco Giants; Dave Kaval, President, Oakland A's; Al Guido, President, San Francisco 49ers
	Introduction: Jeff Vandewynegaerde, COO, Plant Construction
	Moderator: Tim Zanni, Global and U.S. Head of Technology, Media and Telecommunications, KPMG
	Professional sports has long served as a refuge from the travails of daily life, distracting us, entertaining us and unifying us in the spirit of friendly competition. Our professional sports teams also play a valuable role in supporting our local communities and our economy. And they have often helped highlight and advance important social causes. In this conversation, we'll hear from leaders of some of the Bay Area's top professional teams on their reaction to the recent events stemming from the death of George Floyd and also their plans and outlook for resuming play as we emerge from the COVID-19 shutdown.
9:30-10:15 a.m.	Healthcare: From the Frontlines of the Pandemic
	Greg A. Adams, Chairman and CEO, Kaiser Permanente
	Introduction: Geoffrey B. Sears, Partner, Wareham Development
	Moderator: Mary Huss, President and Publisher, San Francisco Business Times and Silicon Valley Business Journal
	Conversation with the leader of one of the nation's largest private healthcare systems on his reaction to the recent events following the death of George Floyd and the national explosion of racial tensions, and also exploring the early days of the COVID-19 pandemic, the massive public health response and his outlook for a cure and the continuing impacts on hospitals and public health systems.
10:15-10:30 a.m.	Virtual Networking Break
10:30-11:30 p.m.	The Future of Cities
	San Francisco Mayor London Breed, Oakland Mayor Libby Schaaf, San Jose Mayor Sam Liccardo

	Introduction: Liz Minick, Managing Director, San Francisco-East Bay Market Executive, Bank of America
	Moderator: Michael Matthews, Director, Public Policy, Facebook
	From the public health and economic impacts of COVID-19 to the recent protests and violence in the wake of George Floyd's death, our cities have experienced unprecedented stress, disruption and turmoil. We'll hear from the mayors of the Bay Area's largest cities on the dramatic events stemming from the death of George Floyd, the impact of the COVID-19 shutdown, the outlook for reopening and what long-term changes we can expect.
11:30-12:30 p.m.	Politics in the Time of Pandemic and Racial Unrest
	James Carville and Laura Ingraham
	Introduction & Moderation: Michael Covarrubias, CEO, TMG Partners
	Conversation with leading national political commentators on the politics of COVID-19 and how the pandemic and the nation's response to it will influence the 2020 Presidential election.
12:30-1:30 p.m.	Virtual Reception
